

Republican Victory!

Territorial and County Republican Candidates
Elected by Good Majorities.

DEMOCRATIC GAINS IN MORA COUNTY.

Wm. H. Andrews was re-elected to the position of delegate to congress by a majority of 597 votes.

Larrazola gained his strength in San Miguel county, which gave him a plurality of 900 votes, and the split in Bernalillo county, owing to the Hubbell and Arrijo faction fight gave him a majority there. Grant and Roosevelt counties also gave him good majorities. The vote for delegate and statehood was as follows,

of Local Interest

Mrs. F. A. Roy was on the sick list the first part of this week.

Deputy Sheriff Darl Brown of Springer passed through this city on Friday.

Mrs. B. M. St. Vrain, of Mora, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Roy.

Bias Sanchez left for Mora Wednesday as a special messenger with the Precinct ballot box.

Mrs. Parker Wells, who has been the guest of Mrs. F. A. Roy for the past few days, left Thursday for Springer to visit Mrs. T. Clothier.

The Southwestern Realty Co. of Roy is well posted on lands in this vicinity. Call at their office at the Spanish-American when you wish to buy or sell.

The Primrose Progressive Circle held their regular meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. F. A. Roy. The dance given last week netted $38.15.

Mrs. F. B. Evans gave a dinner in honor of Miss Dora Levy Friday evening. Those present included Miss Levy, Mrs. B. M. St. Vrain, Misses Josephine and Eugenia Roy.

Nazario Florez was arrested by deputy sheriff Guadalupe Garcia on Thursday, being charged with resisting and assaulting an officer of the law on election day. His hearing was set for today at 2:00 P. M.

A party of six homeseekers from Oklahoma arrived in Roy Thursday, November 8th. They left for Roswell on Friday's train, as they had heard while enroute wonderful stories of that section. They did not stop to investigate our adjacent government land or its possibilities.

The fights and small riot at the polls on election day were a disgrace to the fair name of our little city, and we sincerely hope that the principle instigators of the affair will be given a lesson that will be sufficient to put a stop to any further exhibitions of lawlessness in the future. The offenses are the more serious in that officers of the law while in the discharge of their duty were resisted, not only by the persons whom they were bringing to order, but also by bystanding citizens who should have aided the officers in their endeavor to preserve peace.

Such a state of affairs must not be tolerated in a law-abiding community. The law and its officers must be respected or law and order cannot prevail.

PRAIRIE FIRE.

About nine o'clock this morning fire from some burning rubbish at the homestead of B. C. Montgomery caught in the weeds and grass and fanned by a strong wind started across the prairie in the direction of E. B. Strong's ranch home. An alarm was given and a number of citizens hurried to the scene and soon had the fire in control.

FAREWELL PARTY.

A very pleasant party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Floersheim last Wednesday evening as a farewell to Miss Dora Levy, who will soon return to her home in Los Angeles. The company was very pleasantly entertained by the musically inclined members of the company. Delicious refreshments were served. Those present included Mrs. B. M. St. Vrain, Mrs. Parker Wells, Mrs. J. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Alldredge, the Misses Josephine and Eugenia Roy, Hilda Floersheim, Messrs. Wm. A. Brumage, Al. S. Hanson, Melville Floersheim, Irwin Floersheim.

THE FIGHT ELECTION DAY.

The intense rivalry between political factions and a large amount of bad whiskey which had been distributed on election day culminated in a serious fight about 5 p. m. The trouble started when some democrat denounced a voter for casting a republican ballot. This was resented by a bystander and the fight began. M. Trobaugh, who was acting as special officer, attempted to separate the combatants and restore peace, but in so doing he was immediately surrounded by a howling mob who fell upon him and beat him about the head. Ed. Pritchard, another special officer went to his assistance, but was repulsed by a shower of stones. He then drew his gun and fired into the air in order to frighten his assailants. Two of them who had guns commenced firing at Pritchard, whose gun being emptied, ran. The gun play, however, had the desired effect of dispersing the crowd and order was restored. There were no further disturbances during the night.

Tomas Rivera and wife, of Castilla, New Mexico, are visiting with their son, Tomas A. Rivera, of the firm of Bernal & Rivera, of this city. Don Tomas Rivera is a prominent citizen of Taos county, holding at present the office of assessor of that county.
